FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE.

OVER THE POST OFFICE.

There is nothing so much sought for by the public as a practical Sewing Machine, one that is Simple, Strong & Reliable.

One that will run for years without the annoyance of being out of repair; one that is noiseless and swift in motion; also that makes the stitch as you want it, like an old hand doing the work in one of those machines. They make

FOUR DIFFERENT STITCHES,
and have all the advantages of a conventional foot motion, which carries the work either way, which keeps the needle making all the four stitches, can be done while the machine is in motion; the saving of time in stopping to change the length of stitch, is obtained by this machine.

Any correspondence regarding our Machines will be promptly answered. Address a Letter Stamp and we will send circular and sample of work by return mail.

DAILY GAZETTE.

Decision of the Supreme Court, affirming the Validity of Farm Mortgages.

OPINION BY JUSTICE PAINE.

Daniel P. Crosby, Respondent, against Samuel L.
Koub and others, Appellants.

This action was brought to foreclose what is commonly called a farm mortgage.
It was given to the Milwaukee & Mississippi Railroad Company, and the note given in connection with it, was made payable to that company or order. It is conceded that it was transferred to the plaintiff before due, for value, and that the plaintiff had no notice of any equitable defense.
But on the part of the defendant offered evidence of a defense, set up in the answer founded upon alleged false and fraudulent representations by the agents of the company in procuring the mortgage. This was excluded on the ground that such facts would constitute no defense against the plaintiff, he being a bona fide holder for value.

This ruling is alleged to be erroneous.
And it is claimed that this note never was transferred to the plaintiff within the rule of mercantile law, so as to transfer the local title, and that therefore the equities between the original parties may still be shown in defense. This position is based entirely on the mode of transfer, which was as follows: The company executed to the plaintiff its own negotiable bond, payable to him or bearer, attached the note to it, reciting in the bond that they thereby transferred the note and mortgage to the plaintiff as security, and that both should be transferable in connection with the bond and not otherwise.

The sole question is whether this was a sufficient endorsement of the note within the law, so as to pass the legal title?

It must be admitted that the company did not assume the liability of indorsers.
But this is clearly not necessary a transfer of the note. Thus a payee may indorse without recourse, which transfers the note, though he assume no liability whatever.
So he may transfer the title by signing on the back or attached to the note a guaranty of the payment or collection, which is entirely a different contract from that of an indorser. And even though he should fail to bind himself as guarantor, by not completing with the statute of frauds, there is no reason to doubt that the title to the note would pass. In every case of a sale of negotiable paper, there are two objects to be accomplished. First, to pass the title to the purchaser, and second, to fix the relation of the vendor to the paper after the sale. The latter may release him from any liability, or charge him with the absolute liability of indorser, or with the conditional liability of a guarantor of payment, or with the conditional liability of a guarantor of collection. But it is immaterial which, so far as the accomplishment of the first object is concerned. In either case the intent to pass the title, has that effect, which is conclusively confirmed by the fact of the balance of the contract. Judge Bronson, in Miller vs. Gaston, 2d Hill, 132, states the fact incidentally, that "a guaranty as well as an indorsement, may have the effect of transferring the legal title to the note." There are but few authorities directly in point, and those are somewhat in conflict. They are all cited in Parsons on Notes and Bills, Vol. 2, page 135, Note A.
The author gives it as his opinion that on principle, a note transferred by guaranty, remains in the hands of the original party, and that the guarantor, who becomes sustained that conclusion, seems founded upon the better reasoning. If an indorser without recourse transfers the title within the time, the parties so intend, an indorsement with guaranty should have the same effect, and that whether the guaranty, as such, stand or fall. It being established then that it is not necessary to a transfer of title that the vendor should assume the technical liability of indorser, but that the parties may contract on that subject as they please, can there be any room for doubt that the bond of the railroad company had been actually written on the back of the note, it would have the effect of indorsement to transfer the title within the law merchant? I can see none whatever.
Stronger language could not be used showing an intent to pass the title to the note to be held as collateral security for the debt evidenced by the bond, and that it was designed to circulate as negotiable paper, transferable by delivery with the bond, which the company must be assumed to have known could not have been done without being first indorsed by it. The intent then to pass the title and make the note transferable by delivery, is manifest.
And this contract, like all others, must take effect according to the intent of the parties, it is sufficient in law to express that intent. And the fact that the parties contracted for an absolute liability by the vendor, evidenced by a distinct negotiable instrument on the back of the one transferred, cannot distinguish the case, for an indorsement of a transfer is concerned, from a case where they contract for no liability, or for the conditional liability of an indorser, or the absolute liability of a guarantor. I conclude, then, that if the bond had been written on the back of the note, it would have been fully sufficient to pass the legal title within the law merchant.

The only question remaining is whether the fact that it was on another paper attached to the note, prevents this effect.
This is a question upon the question whether there is any indorsement of the note was the identical paper on which the note was originally written. That there is any such cannot be maintained. All the cases where the question is raised and all elementary writers concur in saying that an indorsement may be on another paper attached to, and made a part of the note.
Such paper is called an allonge, and it is true that the usual reason stated for using such a paper is that the original paper is so small that it is inconvenient to write on the back of the note the real contract between the vendor and the vendee, and which if so written on another paper and attached to it with like effect. Thus suppose the consideration of an ordinary indorsement, was a sale of real estate, and the parties desired to express the consideration. It might be wholly unnecessary, yet no one could question their right to do so. Suppose the description of the real estate was too long to be written on the back of the note, and they should write the indorsement on another paper containing the full description and attach it to the note. Could it be for a moment contended that it would not pass the title? I think not. Yet if not, it must be because the spirit of the mercantile rule is as above stated. And if such is its spirit, the particular reason which makes the contract too long to be written on the note is wholly immaterial. All that can be material is that it be a contract which if on the note would pass the title, and that for some reason it is inconvenient to write it on the note. When this is true the transfer may be effected by writing on another paper attached to the note.

All that is shown by the authorities referred to by the appellant is that where a note payable to order, has never been indorsed by the payee, within the meaning of the law merchant, the legal title has not passed, and the equities between the original parties are not cut off. But no case was cited and I think none can be found to show that the name of the payee, on another paper attached to the note and plainly intended to operate as an indorsement so far as to transfer the title, would not have that effect.

There are cases showing that an assignment of a number of notes at once, in a separate paper, never attached to either of the notes intended to be, is not an indorsement in the law merchant. French vs.
Turner, 15th Ind., 59; Hopkirk vs.
Page, 2d Brockenborough, 41. But such a transfer is so widely different from the present, and there was really so little ground to claim that it was an indorsement, that while the correctness of these decisions is unquestioned, it is equally clear that they are not applicable here. On the contrary, Chief Justice Marshall based his conclusions on the fact that the mode of transfer there in question, separates the "evidence of ownership from the bill itself," implying plainly that the same conclusion would not be true where this evidence was attached to the note, so as to travel with it wherever it might go.

I have not deemed it necessary to enter into any detailed examination of authorities. I have stated the principles which seem fairly to be derived from them, and although no case is found where a contract precisely like this has been passed on, it seems to me fully within those principles. The rules of the mercantile law are based upon convenience. For this reason they are very hard, so as to impose upon one age the more changes and forms of business which may have been in vogue in another. This would be extremely inconvenient. Those rules are therefore flexible and adapt themselves to the changes of progress and experience, so as to be always founded on convenience. No better illustration of this can be given than is furnished by the history of negotiable bonds like the one, in connection with which this note was transferred. Bonds and other sealed instruments were not negotiable within the law merchant. They were always open to any defense existing between the original parties. But in the great increase of corporations, who became borrowers in the money market, of the world, it was found that their bonds were performing the same functions as negotiable paper, and that the interest and convenience of the mercantile public required that they be governed substantially by the same rules. This rule has accordingly been established. See opinion of Justice Cole in Clark vs. Janesville, 10 Wis., 183, and cases cited.

It would be an extraordinary departure from the spirit of these decisions, which held that these bonds, though in form not within the law merchant, were yet within its reason, and should be entitled to its protection, if we should now hold that by connecting one of them with a note which was negotiable within the law merchant, the latter should be taken out of it.
I think the judgment should be affirmed.

And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

The News.

There is nothing of importance from Vicksburg. The news is to Sunday. The bombardment is still going on. Gen. Joe Johnston is reported to be at Black River bridge, and forces have been sent to drive him back, or prevent his advance.

The news from other quarters is unimportant. The great canal convention at Chicago passed resolutions in favor of building free canals by the national government, large enough for gunboats, from the Atlantic to the Mississippi.

The Suppression of the Chicago Times.

The suppression of the Chicago Times naturally excites public attention. In this locality the act is generally approved. There are a few who howl about it. Like the inebriate who is deprived of his usual exciting dram, those who have been in the habit of swallowing the mental food of the Times, are lost without the usual stimulus. They go about the streets wailing and gnashing their teeth. This is to be expected. The Times has so long inculcated disloyalty and aided treason that its readers have taken upon themselves a hue similar to that copper-colored sheet. Hence, when it is squelched its supporters are indignant.

We do not regard free speech as at all in question. Everybody is just as free to talk about the war and suggest the best methods of carrying on hostilities for the suppressing the rebellion as ever. Loyal men have no trouble. Their rights are not infringed, and as for men of the opposite character—those who are against their country in this crisis—they have no rights to be respected.

The crisis is upon the country. Its fate trembles in the balance. What might be tolerated in peacetime times, cannot be permitted now. Our danger is imminent from internal and foreign foes, and the government, the Union and the country, "must and shall be preserved." No traitors, no drivelling, babbling politicians should be allowed to talk or act against the common weal. The disease is past small pill medical prescriptions; we must have surgery—exclusion—the cutting off of diseased and rotting members, that the body may live. The case is beyond the resolutions of political doctors, or of civil courts. The military power alone can save us, and we are in favor of submitting to its direction while the storm lasts, no matter what newspaper is suppressed, or whose tongue is made inactive and silent. The military commanders are the best and only judges of the situation, and the remedies to be applied, and they should be obeyed, first of all, by every one, in all matters pertaining to the war.

LATE FROM VICKSBURG.—The Chicago Journal correspondence to the 26th, says: There was no fighting from the 23d to the 26th, when hostilities were resumed. The time was occupied in removing the wounded to Milliken's Bend, and burying the dead. Considerable numbers had been left on the field immediately adjacent to the rebel works, and in the ditches along the fortifications. They were all interred or removed. In some instances the rebels, with most chivalrous barbarity, have fired upon ambulance trains engaged in the removal of the dead and wounded. The weather is so hot that the bodies of those who are killed decompose very rapidly, and removal to their homes is impossible. The rebels are in some force on the rear, perhaps 8,000, composed of those who escaped from Jackson. They may attack, but it is doubted.

CHICAGO & NORTHWESTERN RAILROAD.—The annual meeting of the bondholders and stockholders of the Chicago and North-western Railroad Company will be held at the office of the company, in the city of Chicago, on Thursday, June 4th, at two o'clock P. M.

At this meeting the plan of funding the second mortgage bonds will be considered. Their amount is $2,000,000, and the arrears of interest amount to $300,000.—The probability is that the whole matter will be referred to the directors, who, as well as the bondholders, are said to be in favor of funding of the whole sum $2,300,000.

PROVOST MARSHAL'S OFFICE.—The Wisconsin says: The office of the Provost Marshal for this county is to remain in Milwaukee, at the same place where it now is, and it is the headquarters of the board of enrollment commissioners only that is to be located at Racine. Marshal Hood will continue to discharge the duties appertaining to his office, in this city, as heretofore.

The steamer Davenport landed at our levee yesterday, having on board and in her cargo seven hundred and fifty six Indians, under charge of company F, 10th Minnesota regiment, Lieut. Kennedy commanding. The Indians were Winnebagoes, and came from Blue Earth county, Minnesota. They are on their way to Fort Randall, Dakota territory. Two chiefs—Little Thunder and Wineshick—accompany them.—Dubuque Times.

The Chicago Times Establishment Taken Possession of by the Military Authorities.

At four o'clock this morning, two companies of soldiers from Camp Douglas, under command of Capt. McDonald, took possession of the Chicago Times office, stopped the press, destroyed a large number of papers and placed a guard over the establishment. About 8,000 newspapers had been printed when the soldiers took possession. The following is from the Times of this morning:

"On yesterday morning, at about 11 o'clock, we received the following telegraphic dispatch:

"BY TELEGRAPH FROM HEADQUARTERS, VICKSBURG, June 2.

"Editor of The Chicago Times:—You are hereby notified that I have issued an order stopping the publication of your paper, which order will be published in the morning papers of this city to-day (Thursday morning). You will please govern yourself accordingly.

"A. E. BURNSIDE, Maj. Gen."

"At about 7 o'clock p. m., the following paper was served upon us by a military officer from Camp Douglas:

"BY TELEGRAPH FROM SPRINGFIELD, CHICAGO, June 2.

"You will receive the following order of Maj. Gen. Burnside:

"CINCINNATI, June 2.

"GEN. AMMEN:—I have issued an order suppressing the Chicago Times. You will see that no more publications of it are made, and, if necessary, you will take military possession of the office. (Signed)

"A. E. BURNSIDE, Maj. Gen."

"At about 10 o'clock p. m., the following order made by Judge Drummond, of the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois, was served upon the military officer who had been the bearer of the foregoing paper:

"U. S. Circuit Court, Northern District of Illinois, Withers F. Storey and Ananias Worden vs. Gen. A. E. Burnside, Gen. Ammen, and James S. Putnam.

Whereas an application has been made to me by bill on the equity side of this court to restrain and enjoin the above named defendants from carrying into effect an order of Maj. Gen. A. E. Burnside, dated June 2d, 1863, purporting to be made by him as an officer acting under the authority of the publication of a newspaper called the Chicago Times, and whereas the application has been made at so late an hour that it cannot be heard before to-morrow; now, the above named defendants, and particularly the said Gen. Ammen and Jas. S. Putnam, are hereby directed and enjoined to take no steps or measures to carry into effect the said order of Major General Burnside above referred to, until the application can be enjoined not to execute the same.

THOMAS DRUMMOND, U. S. Judge.

CHICAGO, June 2.

The Cincinnati papers of yesterday, which came to hand last night, contained the following order:

GENERAL ORDERS, No. 84.

HEADQUARTERS, DEPARTMENT OF THE OHIO, CINCINNATI, O., June 1, 1863.

1. The tendency of the opinions and articles habitually published in the newspaper known as the New York World being to cast reproach upon the government, and to weaken its efforts to suppress the rebellion, by creating distrust in its war policy, its circulation in time of war is calculated to exert a pernicious and treasonable influence, and is therefore prohibited in this department.

2. Postmasters, news agents, and all others will govern themselves by this order; as any person detected in forwarding, selling, or in any way circulating the paper referred to will be promptly arrested and held for trial.

3. On account of the repeated expression of disloyal and incendiary sentiments, the publication of the newspaper known as the Chicago Times is hereby suppressed.

4. Brigadier General Jacob Ammen, commanding the district of Illinois, is charged with the execution of the third paragraph of this order.

By command of Mr. Gen. Burnside.

LIEUT. COL. AND ASST. ADJT. GEN.

Official: D. R. Larned, Capt. and Asst. Adj. Gen.

As we write, at 2 o'clock a. m., the above mentioned military officer from Camp Douglas has returned to that post, with the above mentioned intention of bringing into the city a military force with which to execute the order of Gen. Burnside; and in contempt of the restraining order of Judge Drummond. If the reader shall receive this paper, it will have been printed before the arrival of the threatened military force.

A little after midnight a strong military guard from Camp Douglas took unopposed possession of the Times premises, and patrolled the entire block for the remainder of the night, the terms of the order of suppression being strictly carried out.

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette. From the "Eagle" Regiment.

REAR OF VICKSBURG, IN REPLY TO THE REBELS' WORKS, May 23d, 1863.

Editors Gazette:—We have just been through one of the most desperate undertakings of the war. After four days constant fighting and bombardment, yesterday was selected as the day to assault the enemy's works and try to take them by storm.

Blair's division of our corps (Sherman's) led the way at 10 o'clock, and succeeded in getting to the walls of the forts and planted the flag thereon, but meeting with such resistance they fell back, and at 3 p. m., Gen. Mower, commanding the 2d brigade to which we are attached, was called on by Gen. Sherman to charge through a ravine by the flank and enter the works by a road near one of the forts. The movement commenced in earnest; as we entered the ravine all the guns were trained on the brigade marching by the flank in four ranks, and it can better be imagined than described how men were slaughtered as we entered the ravine; so many men were killed and wounded that the road was clogged up so as to prevent some parts of the brigade from getting through. Four companies from our regiment and the 6th Minnesota were turned to the right at this place and filed under cover of a hill and the fire of Waterhouse's battery. The enemy threw shell with such accuracy as to explode four in succession within fifteen yards of us, one blew up a timber chest of the battery near us but without injuring any one. Lieut. Chapman of company F was killed, Capt. Estee mortally wounded, Col. Jefferson lost one finger, and many others in the regiment and brigade horribly mangled and many dead. We got immediately under the works, but to enter in four ranks would be madness. We fought them until darkness closed the scene. As a rebel would be sick his head above the works a hundred shots would be sent at him.

The artillery is constantly engaged and the mortar and gunboats are throwing shell night and day. Our line extends from above Vicksburg on the river to Warren below, and no one can get in or out. I don't think any attempt will be made to carry their works by storm again. We have got them tight and they must surrender soon or come out and fight us. We will meet them outside their works cheerfully, but to undertake to carry the place by assault cannot, in my opinion, be done, for we have been up and had a look at the thing and are pretty well satisfied. We are not whipped, we hold all we have gained. Our sharpshooters are directly under their works, and it is almost impossible for them to load their guns for fear of being shot down.

We have captured since we landed at Grand Gulf, 38 pieces of artillery and 600 caissons, the latter we destroyed at Jackson. We captured in one night at Black River, 38 pieces of artillery. Our regiment brought through 12 pieces, one of Lady Lee, captured by the enemy at Shiloh. At Jackson, it is estimated we destroyed government property to the amount of six million dollars. We burned 1,800 hogheads of sugar, all the cotton factories, 1,600 bales of cotton, railroad depots, bridges, ferry boats, penitentiary with all the workshops, the confederate house cost $250,000, equipments enough to arm and fit out 10,000 men, ammunition by the ton, two cannon foundries, arsenals, workshops of all kinds.

As for price of living I will give you a few figures: Flour $160 a barrel; sugar $1 a pound; coffee $6 a pound; no tea; ladies shoes $200 per pair; boots $65 per pair; bacon $1 per pound; common felt hat $25. I paid for a piece of bacon, corn bread and rye coffee, all that the best hotel afforded, $1 per meal, the above is the bill of fare, $1 in greenbacks or $3 in Confederate money was the price.

We have been successful in all the battles since we landed in Mississippi and will be successful here. We are in good spirits and will soon have the river open. We have slept out doors for twenty-two nights, without tents, been three days and only had four meals to eat, half rations the remainder of the time. We are laying now on the battle field, many of us with the graves of our fallen comrades for pillows, and throughout I never saw less dissatisfaction than in this campaign, each one seems to feel as if the whole thing depended on himself. Company G had one man wounded and some missing.

Newspapers for Soldiers.

UNITED STATES GENERAL HOSPITAL, JEFFERSON BARRACKS, MO., June 1st, 1863.

Editors Gazette:—The Wisconsin soldiers at this hospital have had your Daily paper for some weeks gratis, for which you have many thanks, and while they burrah for the Gazette, they call for other papers from different parts of the state. The Milwaukee Sentinel has not been seen in this reading room for some weeks. We begin to fear the copperheads have cleaned that loyal paper out, or the editor could not have forgotten his best and warmest friends.

There is no one thing that could be sent here that would make the soldiers rejoice more than for loyal papers from home.—The soldiers want no others. If you have any disloyal ones, you had better keep them in the state, for should they come here I don't know but some would take "French leave" for Wisconsin. I thank God the day of reckoning will soon come. Then those mean, cowardly traitors will "hunt their holes." Many of their names are already on record in the soldier's diary.

I hope that other editors in Wisconsin will follow your example by forwarding copies of their papers, directed to The Soldier's Reading Room, Jefferson Barracks, Mo., and receive many thanks.

Yours, with respect, LIBRARIAN.

Last Night's Report.

CAIRO, June 3.

Special to the Evening Journal.—The dispatch boat Wilson arrived this morning, having left the mouth of the Yazoo on the evening of the 30th ult.

Affairs in the rear of Vicksburg were unchanged. There were discharges of artillery, at intervals, all day.

A concentration of guns had been made for the purpose of knocking down only a grist mill in Vicksburg.

Deserters were coming into our lines at a rapid rate. Pemberton's force is greatly demoralized.

The Wilson on her way up, met thirteen boat loads of troops.

The steamer Hope, just from Memphis, brings between seventy-five and one hundred wounded, nearly all officers, most of them slightly. The north bound train was detained some time, to allow them to get aboard, and in the confusion it is impossible to get a list of names. Col. Merrill, Capt. Jesse Harrison, and Lieut. McDonald (of the 21st Iowa), are among the number. The colonel, who has been reported mortally, is only seriously wounded.

Major M. L. Martin has arrived, to pay troops in this district to the 30th of April.

WASHINGTON, June 3.

The following was received yesterday: CAIRO, June 2.

To Secretary Wells, Washington:

I have received the following report by the steamer Grace Florence arrived from the fleet:

MISSISSIPPI SQUADRON, FLAG-SHIP BLACK HAWK, REAR OF VICKSBURG, May 27, 1863.

Sir:—Amid our success I regret to report any losses, but we cannot expect to conquer a place like this without some loss. At the earnest request of Gen. Grant and Sherman I sent the Cincinnati to enfilade some rifle pits which hindered the progress of the left wing of our army. Gen. Sherman supposed the enemy had removed his heavy guns to the rear of the city. On the contrary he seemed to have planted more on the water side than usual. The Cincinnati was sunk and went down in shoal water with her flag flying. The enemy still continued to fire upon her, but the flag was not hauled down. Twenty-five men were killed and wounded and 15 are missing. The latter are supposed to be drowned. The vessel can be raised. The pilot was killed early in the action.

[Signed.] DAVID D. PORTER, A. R. A. Commanding Miss. Squadron.

NEW YORK, June 3.

A Washington special says the reported removal of Gen. Hunter is authoritatively contradicted. Gen. Saxton leaves, to-morrow, with dispatches for Gen. Hunter.

Special to the Tribune.—Deserters from all parts of the rebel lines, state that the garrison at Vicksburg, is from 20,000 to 25,000 strong, that the men in the trenches and forts are not relieved day or night, and are now living on quarter rations of corn bread and boiled fresh beef. Their reserve is only one brigade and a half, and the majority of the troops are willing to surrender the city.

Our shells are destroying buildings, and the inhabitants live in caves to escape death.

Pemberton sent some families with their negroes, into our lines, yesterday, but Gen. Grant sent the former back and kept the negroes to work for us.

The guerrillas have made raids at and above Lake Providence, and run off a number of negroes.

The gunboat Cincinnati went down and fought the upper water batteries dead, and after a brilliant bombardment became involved in an eddy and was forced to retire. She received several shots in her stern, and is now in a sinking condition, but can be saved.

Our sappers and miners are progressing successfully with their work of gradual approaches, and in some places have reached within a few yards of the rebel works.—The rebel sharpshooters do not dare to fire, nor their men in rifle pits to show their heads above the works.

Our loss in killed and wounded during the siege, which commenced on the 8th inst., will not exceed 1,800 or 2,000. The first accounts having been greatly exaggerated.

The rebels may have to be starved out, but there need be no fears entertained of not capturing Vicksburg and its entire garrison.

of that military power, which is to the time being, the country's protection, makes its appearance, it is the bounden duty of the commanding general to expel it from his lines, with a heavier hand than he would drive from his camp the villain who would scatter a material poison, that would enervate and decimate the soldiers. The General commanding desires to again call the attention of all officers, provost marshals and others in authority, to the necessity of great care in the making of arrests, which should, in all instances, be founded on full affidavits, sustaining distinct charges, except when the exigencies of the case demand instant action.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, June 4.

A Washington dispatch to the Herald, states that no official information has been received here in regard to any assault upon the rebel works at Vicksburg by General Grant, or of any repulse to the Union forces. It is believed such facts, if so, would have been promptly communicated to the military authorities here. The report is discredited here.

Officers of the Indianapolis who arrived at Washington, state that while passing through Montgomery, Ala., they witnessed the launching of a steamer 244 feet long and 25 feet beam, to be 4 inch plated.

A New Orleans letter of the 27th, mentions a report there that one of our gunboats had destroyed the town of Franklin, La., in consequence of being fired on while they were passing by guerrillas.

Admiral Foote received his orders to-day, and soon leaves to supersede Dupont.

A Key West letter of the 28th to the Times, says the British steamer Dolphin has been condemned, a large quantity of Enfield rifles and sabres being found on board, marked "H. H. H. H."

The Spanish steamer Union has been captured by the gunboat Huntsville, off Mobile, and brought into Key West. The Octorara captured the British steamer Eagle, from Nassau, after a long chase, during which the Octorara knocked away the Eagle's wheel house, pilot house and smoke stack.

The rebel steamer Cuba, after being chased by the Octorara and Huntsville, was seen in with the De Soto, and was burned and her crew captured by the De Soto.

NEW YORK, June 4.

Richmond papers of the 1st and 2d state that Vallandigham was still at Shelbyville. The Virginia election probably resulted in the choice of Billy Smith for Governor. Letcher is defeated for congress by Baldwin. Boelter is defeated by Holliday.—Price is probably elected Lieut. Governor over Imboden.

Ewell has taken active command of Jackson's corps.

A letter to the Times states that Colonel Kilpatrick is penetrating another raid from Gloucester County, Va., through Gloucester county across Piankank river, thence through the middle section of counties to Urbana. His orders are to make his presence felt in the rich country through which he was to pass.

Tribune's dispatch.—Admiral Foote was to-day detached and ordered to relieve Dupont. He will leave New York in the Tuscarora.

Juvenile Belligerents.

Three boys were taken and two of them sent to jail, by the police court of this city, yesterday, for fighting. For some time past there has been much quarrelling among the young boys of the city, the feud growing out of the formation of a juvenile military company, some time since. It has been carried so far that boys from certain parts of the city cannot visit other localities without being attacked with stones or sticks, and sometimes with knives and even pistols. This produces retaliation from the other side, so that it has become necessary for the police court to interfere and make an example of these young belligerents to prevent fatal consequences. This has been done in the case of the boys first mentioned, and we learn will be followed up by further arrests, if the evil practice is not discontinued. Parents can do much to aid the officers of the law.

Connected with this we would call the attention of parents to the reprehensible practice by boys in the city throwing stones for amusement, and whenever disputes arise. Several children have been considerably injured in this way. The habit should be repressed at once.

This delightful article for preserving and beautifying the human hair is again put up by the original proprietor, and is now made with the purest skill and attention, which first created its immense and unprecedented sales of over one million bottles annually. It is still sold at 25 cents in large bottles. Two million bottles can easily be sold in a year when it is again known that the Katharon is not only the most delicate hair dressing of cheapness, but it also cures the scalp of scurf and dandruff, gives the hair a lively rich luxuriant growth, and prevents it from turning gray. The Katharon has been tested for over twelve years, and is warranted as described. Any lady who values her hair and wishes to use the Katharon, it is easily perfumed, cheap and valuable. It is sold by all respectable dealers throughout the world.

To Horse Owners.

DR. SWEET'S INFALLIBLE LINIMENT FOR HORSES is unrivaled by any, in all cases of Lameness, arising from Sprain, Bruise or Wrenching, its effect is magical and certain. It is made of Gallic, Sassafras, Matico, etc., it will also cure speedily—Sprain and Rheumatism may be easily prevented and cured in their incipient stages, but confirmed cases are beyond the possibility of a radical cure. No case of chronic lameness or any other disease of the horse, however long standing, but which it cures, and the horse is able to resume his work. Every horse owner should have this remedy at hand, for the timely use at the first appearance of lameness, will effectually prevent those formidable diseases mentioned, to which all horses are liable, and which render so many otherwise valuable horses nearly worthless. SINGER & CO.'S
STANDARD MACHINES
Well known to be the best for Manufacturing Purposes:
No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,
Reduced to $70.
No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,
Reduced to $70.
Singer's Letter A Machine,
The best Machine in the world for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer), and beautifully ornamented, FIFTY DOLLARS.
The No. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.
Our No. 1 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are extra slow, with an arm long enough to take in and stitch the largest of leather. There is scarcely any part of a harness or anything that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor in the making of the harness is a matter of fact. The machine is so long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.
We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want to make their own clothes. They embody the principles of the standard machine, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are designed to be as easy to use as the standard machine for manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.
We have always on hand
Hemming Gauges, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Hat & Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.
We manufacture our own Needles, and would want all persons using our machines to buy our needles. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles we sell are made of the best steel, and are of the best quality. A bad needle will ruin the best machine. Our customers are assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the best needles.
GENUINE ARTICLE.
In case of small purchases, the money may be sent by postage stamps or bank notes.
Our Correspondents will also write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.
Persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, price, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy.

50,000-lbs. of Wool-Wanted!
at the
New Woolen Factory
of
F. A. WHEELER & SONS.
This splendid establishment, situated on Main St., a few doors west of the School House, is now in successful operation. The Machine is New and of the best quality. We are therefore prepared to manufacture a Yard of Cassimere or a pound of Stocking Yarn for Two and a half pounds of Wool, or 12 1/2 lbs. of wool and three shillings for manufacturing. Also, all kinds of FLANNELS AT THE SAME RATES, according to the amount of wool required to make them.
Wool Carding and Cloth Dressing Done on Short Notice.
Those having Fine Wool to be carded into rolls should have it Cleaned at the Factory, as our conveniences are better calculated to do it well. Our price for cleaning is one cent per pound. It is very essential to have wool in good condition, otherwise it injures the card and produces poor rolls. Our carding machine is the best that could be obtained, and cannot fail to make good work. We would invite all those who have wool to call on us for the purpose of giving us a call. Also, would say to merchants who wish to obtain our cloth, that it would be for their interest to call on us, as we would be able to do so, doing, get a good article that they can recommend to their customers.
A good supply of Cloth Constantly on Hand, which will be sold cheap for cash or wool, or exchanged for wool on shares.
Those living at a distance can send their wool by railroad or express, with directions, and it will be promptly attended to. Those coming from a distance, with wool to be carded, will be kept over night.
FREE OF CHARGE.
We are prepared to make
Plain and Fancy Cassimeres, CHECKED FLANNELS, &c.
Also,
INDIGO DYED CASSIMERES,
Stocking Yarn and Rolls.
And finally, most kinds of cloth and yarn that may be desired.
We have also made arrangements with a first rate FANCY DYER,
who will attend to the dyeing of all kinds of silk and cotton goods.
